

Real Change Not Spare Change

Help make a change
for Columbia.

- * Many people who panhandle suffer from drug and alcohol addictions, and giving spare change often sustains those addictions.
- * Individuals who panhandle are not always homeless.
- * When asked for spare change, it's OK to politely say "no" or "sorry"
- * Aggressive panhandling, such as touching, pestering or the use of threatening gestures or language, is illegal. If you feel endangered, seek out a police officer or call the Columbia Police at 442-6131.
- * If you want to help, please donate your money to organizations such as our local United Way and other agencies dedicated to providing food, housing & emergency services to those in need.

Go to www.ChangeforColumbia.com for more details

Real Change Not Spare Change

Help make a change
for Columbia.

- * Many people who panhandle suffer from drug and alcohol addictions, and giving spare change often sustains those addictions.
- * Individuals who panhandle are not always homeless.
- * When asked for spare change, it's OK to politely say "no" or "sorry"
- * Aggressive panhandling, such as touching, pestering or the use of threatening gestures or language, is illegal. If you feel endangered, seek out a police officer or call the Columbia Police at 442-6131.
- * If you want to help, please donate your money to organizations such as our local United Way and other agencies dedicated to providing food, housing & emergency services to those in need.

Go to www.ChangeforColumbia.com for more details

Real Change Not Spare Change

Help make a change
for Columbia.

- * Many people who panhandle suffer from drug and alcohol addictions, and giving spare change often sustains those addictions.
- * Individuals who panhandle are not always homeless.
- * When asked for spare change, it's OK to politely say "no" or "sorry"
- * Aggressive panhandling, such as touching, pestering or the use of threatening gestures or language, is illegal. If you feel endangered, seek out a police officer or call the Columbia Police at 442-6131.
- * If you want to help, please donate your money to organizations such as our local United Way and other agencies dedicated to providing food, housing & emergency services to those in need.

Go to www.ChangeforColumbia.com for more details